

The Philadelphia Association of Black Journalists requests the honor of your presence at its 30th Anniversary Reception
Wednesday, November 19, 2003
Philadelphia Inquirer/Daily News Public Room
400 North Broad Street
Philadelphia, PA
6:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.
Refreshments will be served.
7:15 p.m. Remarks
"Taking Us Back" with Founding and Early Members followed by NABJ President Herbert Lowe and PABJ President Denise Clay

RSVP by November 12
pabj@pabj.org
215-949-4195

Philadelphia Association of Black Journalists
P. O. Box 8232
Philadelphia, PA 19101
www.pabj.org

October 27, 2003

Greetings!

The Philadelphia Association of Black Journalists (PABJ) is a non-profit organization founded in 1973 by journalists concerned about the lack of Black journalists in the media and the dearth of coverage of the Black community. PABJ is the founding chapter of the National Association of Black Journalists, which was formed in 1975.

PABJ would like to thank you for your support over the years. This is an important year for the organization. PABJ commemorates 30 years of advocating for Black journalists in the news industry and educating the community on the issues.

We are hoping you will join us for PABJ's 30th Anniversary Reception as we take a look back and toward the future. The reception takes place on Wednesday, November 19, 2003 at the Philadelphia Inquirer/Daily News Public Room, 400 North Broad Street, Philadelphia, from 6:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. and is open to the public. Refreshments will be served.

The 30th Anniversary Reception includes remarks from founding and early members as well as the National Association of Black Journalists President Herbert Lowe and myself, the Philadelphia chapter president. The remarks portion of the program begins at 7:15 p.m. Founding and early members will "Take Us Back" to those early beginnings. Those invited include Acel Moore, Chuck Stone, Reggie Bryant, Mal Johnson, Claude Lewis, Sam Pressley, Marilyn Darling, Elmer Smith, J. Whyatt Mondesire, Sandra Long, and Joe Davidson.

Join us as we celebrate the impact that PABJ has had on the local and national media communities. I look forward to seeing you at the 30th Anniversary Reception. Please RSVP by November 12 to pabj@pabj.org or 215-949-4195.

Sincerely,

Denise Clay
PABJ President